

FACT SHEET

Chalet The Falcon is located close to the village centre of Lech am Arlberg and only a stone's throw away from the Schlosskopf chair lift. From here, guests can enjoy panoramic views over Lech and the surrounding mountains while still being close to the village's lively atmosphere. With 450m<sup>2</sup> of living space, the chalet comfortably accommodates up to 8 people, making it ideal for families or small groups seeking privacy and comfort in the Alps.

The alpine-style architecture, carefully selected materials, and refined interior details create a warm and elegant ambience throughout. A spacious living room with generous seating forms the heart of the chalet, while the four individually designed bedrooms offer comfort and privacy, each with its own distinctive character and inviting atmosphere.

A personal chalet host, daily cleaning and 24/7 available concierge services are an implicitness at The Falcon, ensuring a smooth and effortless stay from arrival to departure. In addition, guests benefit from tailored service options, including activity planning, private dining, and assistance with experiences in the Arlberg region.

A special highlight is that Chalet The Falcon is also pet-friendly, allowing guests to bring their pets along, making it an excellent choice for a relaxed alpine holiday with the whole family.

Thanks to its prime location and thoughtful design, Chalet The Falcon combines alpine authenticity with modern luxury, offering a perfect base for both active days in the mountains and relaxed evenings in comfort.
