The Aurelio is considered a real insider tip for an unforgettable holiday in the Alps: nestled in a beautiful landscape, the five-star-superior hotel offers a unique view of the Lech mountain scenery. All 10 rooms are individually furnished and combine a modern, elegant style with alpine charm. But not only the location and design are unique: the exquisite restaurant, the spacious spa areas and the personalised service make a stay at the Hotel Aurelios a unique experience, creating a sense of comfort and exclusivity from the very first moment.

The Aurelio consists of three alpine houses. Two of them represent the hotel with ten rooms, the third building is the underground connected Aurelio Chalet - an exclusive chalet with eight rooms, offering additional privacy and space for guests seeking a more secluded stay.

The exclusive hotel spa has a 23-metre indoor pool, whirlpool, cold water pool, two saunas, steam bath, gym and a relaxation area with vitality bar. Guests can also enjoy soothing massages and cosmetic treatments using premium products. The hotel's sun terrace offers the perfect location for light lunches and tasteful drinks, all while enjoying the stunning alpine surroundings. In the evening, guests are pampered with exquisite delicacies at the restaurant Aurelio's. The best way to round off a day in the mountains is with a cocktail or glass of wine in the cosy Licca Lounge with open fireplace.
